

Musician

Michel 'Away' Langevin is a world renowned drummer and a founding member for the experimental metal band Voivod. A fanatic of science fiction, cybernetics and conspiracy theories, he is credited with the creation of the saga of the post-apocalyptic vampire Voivod.

He has performed and recorded with musique actuelle artists Martin Tétreault, René Lussier, Michel Faubert and Bernard Falaise. He also played many rock concerts with Xavier Caféïne, Diane Dufresne and Aut'Chose featuring Lucien Francoeur.

He is also a graphic design artist and has created all of Voivod's artwork. In 2002, the cover art of the first three albums were part of an 80's Cyberpunk movement exhibition at the Andy Warhol Museum in Pittsburgh.
