

Filmmakers

Kevin Bellefleur comes from the Innu community of La Romaine. He has been playing music since the age of 6. He is a singer-songwriter who specializes in pop-rock music. Kevin tours regularly across the Innu communities. Since his first collaboration with the Wapikoni Mobile, he has developed a true love for the camera and images.

Amanda Roy is Anishinaabe from the community of Buzwah. She is interested in Native issues, particularly cultural preservation and resurgence, accessible art, and environmental issues such as alternative energy. Amanda attended the University of Toronto and McGill University. She currently resides in Montreal and works for Mushkeg Media.